PARISH NEWS

Our faithful parish secretary, Rosemary Berenty, will be retiring on July 5th. Rosemary's warm, pleasant personality and gentle spirit was a 'day-brightener' for anyone who needed to call or stop into the office. She was a loyal employee of the parish since 2002! She was dedicated to her job and to the parish. We will sadly miss her, but we congratulate her on earning a much-deserved retirement.

Everyone will get a chance to express their gratitude to Rosemary at the July 1st picnic where we will have a cake in her honor. We wish her many years of continued good health and happiness with her husband Sam and her family!

Although we can never replace someone's unique gifts, the parish is fortunate to have on part-time staff already Liz Forstmeier. Liz will be taking on the duties of parish secretary this July. Many of you know Liz from her work here already or as an active Mom in the community for years. We are thankful to have talented people who help lead the parish as employees!
